Johnson Named Communications Manager

Troup County, Ga. May 20, 2021 – The Troup County Board of Commissioners is pleased to announce Caroline Johnson has been named Communications Manager, effective May 19, 2021.

Johnson holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and Writing from Oglethorpe University and has served as Interim Communications Manager since February, 2021. Before accepting the Communications Manager position, Johnson worked as the Administrative Assistant to the Board of Commissioners, where she provided support for multiple departments within Troup County Government.

“I am excited to continue engaging with the citizens of Troup County and eager to begin cultivating new relationships within the community,” said Johnson when asked what she is most looking forward to.

As the Communications Manager, she will be responsible for managing public information and media relation efforts on behalf of the Troup County Board of Commissioners and its administrative departments. She will relay public information to the citizens of Troup County regarding the government’s goals, service, programs, events, and initiatives through Troup County’s website at <http://www.troupcounty.org>, press releases, and social media.
