County to Host Touch-a-Truck & Big Machines Event

Troup County, Ga. October 18, 2019 – Troup County will be hosting a Touch-a-Truck & Big Machines event on Saturday, November 2nd. The event will be held at George Harris Baseball Complex, located at 131 Ragland Street, LaGrange, GA 30241 from 12:00PM-4:00PM.

This event will offer citizens of all ages an opportunity to learn firsthand about various types of trucks, equipment, and service vehicles by exploring them and interacting with the people who build, protect and serve the community. The event will include displays of heavy machinery equipment, fire trucks, police cars, ambulances, bucket trucks, tractors, boats, a helicopter, etc.

Several Troup County departments and community organizations will be present at the event to showcase equipment and offer educational information and material. The County encourages citizens to attend in order to see, touch, and safely explore various trucks, vehicles, and big machines as well as to interact directly with the people who operate them. Food truck vendors will be present with items for purchase as well as other activities for children. This event is free entry and open to the public.
