Grand Opening of Troup County Fire Administration Building Scheduled for Thursday, July 30th

Troup County, Ga. July 24, 2020 – Troup County will host a Ribbon Cutting and Grand Opening Ceremony for the newly constructed Troup County Fire Administration Building & Emergency Operations Center on Thursday, July 30, 2020 at 10:30am directly following the scheduled Board of Commissioners' Work Session.

The scheduled work session and grand opening ceremony will be held at the Troup County Fire Administration Building, located at 2495 Hamilton Road, LaGrange, GA 30241. The newly constructed building is currently being utilized to accommodate administrative offices and meeting areas, a classroom space for enhanced training capabilities, and the Troup County Emergency Operations Center.

The public is invited and welcome to attend both the work session and ceremony consecutively in order to commemorate the grand opening of the administration building and to allow the opportunity to tour the new facility, which was completed in early spring. The county will have social distancing measures in place during the ceremony but strongly encourages the use of protective face coverings for all attending guests.
