Touch-a-Truck & Big Machines Event Draws Hundreds

Troup County, Ga. November 4, 2019 – Troup County hosted a successful, first-ever Touch-a-Truck & Big Machines event on Saturday, November 2nd at George Harris Baseball Complex in LaGrange. Hundreds of citizens attended and participated in the community-focused event.

The Touch-a-Truck & Big Machines event featured a variety of trucks, heavy machinery equipment, boats, cars, and service vehicles, as well as food vendors and other activities for children. The free admission and open-to-the-public event offered citizens of all ages an opportunity to learn firsthand about various types of service vehicles by exploring them and interacting with the people who build, protect, and serve the community.

The event included displays from Air Evac, American Medical Response, Department of Natural Resources, Georgia Forestry Commission, Georgia Power, Georgia State Patrol, Troup County E-911, Troup County Fire Department and Emergency Management, Troup County Marshal's Office, Troup County Parks and Recreation, Troup County Roads and Engineering, Troup County Sheriff's Office, and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The County extends thanks to all who helped make the event successful, including all volunteers, vendors, and sponsors. The event was sponsored and supported by Diverse Power, Georgia Power, Jackson Services, Metropolitan Communications, Mobile Communications America, and Ten-8 Fire Equipment.
