Troup County Addresses Fire Chief Speculations

Troup County, Ga. July 11, 2019 – The Troup County Board of Commissioners would like to address recent speculations regarding the newly announced upcoming Fire Chief John Ekaitis’ commitment to Troup County.

County Manager Eric Mosley has been in constant contact with Mr. Ekaitis since the Fire Chief role was offered and accepted, and he would like to reiterate that Mr. Ekaitis has continuously confirmed his commitment and enthusiasm to begin the role. “We are thrilled to have Chief Ekaitis on board and are already discussing improvements and innovations. He has great plans for the future of the Fire Department, and we are looking forward to his arrival,” said Mosley.

Troup County is aware of recent speculations regarding Mr. Ekaitis’ acceptance of the role and would like to negate any uncertainty against his commitment to the role. “I am very excited to begin this great opportunity in Troup County and am looking forward to serving the community alongside other staff members of the Fire Department,” said Ekaitis.

Mr. Ekaitis will officially begin the new role on Monday, July 29, 2019.
