Troup County Government Closed July 3rd for Independence Day Holiday

Troup County, Ga. June 30, 2020 – The Troup County Government Center and all Troup County Convenience Centers will not be open for business on Friday, July 3, 2020 in observance of the Independence Day holiday. This closure also reflects Parks and Recreation facilities to include the Mike Daniel Recreation Center.

All Convenience Centers will reopen and return to normal schedules on Saturday, July 4, 2020. All other currently open and operating Troup County facilities will reopen and return to normal schedules on Monday, July 6, 2020. Troup County emergency services will remain available through calling 911.

Reminder Troup County's Annual Fourth of July Fireworks Show event, presented by Troup County Parks and Recreation, has been postponed to Saturday, August 8, 2020 due to continuing Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) precautions and restrictions put in place by Georgia Governor Brian Kemp.
